Update on Trader Joe's

August 22, 2019 – New News

We have been working through a major contradiction from the OU on the projected status of the Trader Joe's Chocolate and Mango Brooklyn Babkas and Half-Moon Cookies this whole week.

We finally got the news from Project Chodosh:

"Anything still on the shelves is Yoshon. They will not be Yoshon for most of the season."

(Source: Project Chodosh)

Perhaps if enough people request it from Trader Joe's, they will reconsider and make them yoshon next year.

Additional Request

August 22/23, 2019 - At Request of OU

For any questions on the status of the three Trader Joe's products, please contact the OU directly at their kashrut Hotline at 212-613-8241.
