August 4, 2020 – At last, the oat dates have been released! The Chodosh Bulletin Update was just sent out from Project Chodosh:

4 Aug 20

Chodosh Update

“The final Chodosh cut off date for oats is July 24th, with a purchase date of August 5th.

Dates for individual products using oats should be available in about a week. Note that Oats used in Post and General Mills cereals will be Yoshon through at least September.

The wheat and barley harvest have just begun. No cut off dates are available yet. We expect to have dates in about a week, but that is dependent on many outside factors such as the weather on the plantations.

[Note from TYNI: If you have the shelf life for your oat product, you can come to this site: Date Calculator . Just add the shelf life of your item to the July 24, 2020 cutoff date, and you will get your product's chodosh cutoff date. This will at least help until we can get all of the oat products updated on Yoshon.com.]

To update everyone, our YAIR (Yoshon.com A.I. Robot) can answer many questions or direct people to where they can get answers, sign up for services, etc. It has been tweaked to be much more interactive, and even fun.

It is a much needed resource to help out our limited staff, mostly with answering questions. So far not many people are using it yet. We encourage people to use it, as we have completely phased out our phone answering services.

Kol Tuv,

The TYNI Staff
