December 25, 2020 – Revised “Always Yoshon” Hechsherim List

Three days ago, some mashgichim notified us about a particular hechsher on our list claiming that it was “weak”. Further investigation proved that it was not necessarily reliable. We revised the list and it was uploaded to our website.

Yet another source backed up this claim today, so we are notifying the newsletter subscribers that they should get the updated sheet. The Direct Download Link for the revised list is below:

May everyone have an easy and meaningful fast, and a wonderful (and safe) Shabbat!
