Final Guide Draft is Out, Plus New Videos!

January 14, 2021 – The Draft of the Final Guide Was Just Released!

Here was the email from Project Chodosh, followed by the Direct Download Link to the Final Guide draft:

“Attached is the UNEDITED main guide to chodosh which contains many updates that were not in the preliminary guide. The Guide was sent to the editor and will be printed and mailed out as soon as that is done.

If you notice any corrections please let me know and I will incorporate them into the guide.

The final edited guide will be sent out in PDF format.

I extend my apologies for the delay in getting this guide out to you this year. One difficulty was getting replies from the companies due to covid. Many companies were understaffed and had secretaries working remotely, resulting in delayed responses.

In addition, I had to push off the guide twice due to personal circumstances.

Please DO NOT REPLY directly to this email. All responses should be sent to yherman20@gmail.com.

I CANNOT make any changes to the mailing list.
