Updates on “KC” Gold Medal Flour, Yoshon.com, and Unger’s Pie Shells

August 30, 2021 – Shocking News on “KC” Gold Medal Flour

Last night Rabbi Sholom Tendler of Star-K reported this news to our WhatsApp groups:

“In past years, KC was indeed all Yoshon. This year it is not the case. KC is still Yoshon for another week or so, until 9/9. After that, it will not be yoshon anymore and 9/9 will be the cutoff date.”

[TYNI Note: Gold Medal Flour is now updated on Yoshon.com with the best by date calculated on this date. It would be: Better if Used By Date of March 21, 2023 (Malt Date: Jun 26 23). Spread the word to friends and family that keep yoshon. This is a highly unusual development. People tend to take it for granted that “KC” Gold Medal flours are always yoshon.]

August 26, 2021 – Updating on Yoshon.com, and a New System

With the release of the pasta cutoff date, updating product entries has started on Yoshon.com, but it takes a lot of time. We have over 2100 entries on our website, and until the Preliminary Guide to Chodosh comes out from Project Chodosh, we will be updating only those products that have best by dates or lot codes.

Any usually “Yoshon” items from “Heimishe” companies we will not know the status of until reported from the Guide. Just a note to everyone, just temporarily, there will be no “Updated As Of” date on any new products.

All newly updated product entries will have the Date Code or Status in Orange directly underneath the product title. The updated date for these is actually August 26, 2021.

August 18, 2021 – Updates from New Square Kashrus

Rabbi Chaim M. Wagshal from New Square Kashrus reported that all Ungers Pie Shells are yoshon.
