Major Update for Yoshon.com!

September 10, 2021 –Yoshon.com Site Overhaul to Occur

Yoshon.com is going to be closed for site maintenance as of Motza'ei Shabbat, 12:30am EDT (9:30pm Arizona MST).

During this time, Yoshon.org will be available temporarily for looking up products. We will let everyone know when the main Yoshon.com site is back up.

All the previously given links except for the link to the search box (yoshon.com/#sbox), will remain the same once Yoshon.com is back up.

As previously reported, these updates will enhance the speed and functionality of the site, as well as giving it a new “facelift”. We hope that you will find it easier to use, and a great experience for the new year and beyond!
