

GENERAL YOSHON NEWS

Chodesh Tov!

Yoshon.com Updates Are Now Complete

We are happy to report that the entire site is now updated to the website's new system, which has a new faster server, and all product entries are updated with current information, unless there was no information available. That is, at least until the next round of updates, which should likely be the Final Guide to Chodosh. We hope that you find Yoshon.com user-friendly for all, from Smart phones to computers, as TYNI endeavors to keep making the mitzvah of yoshon as easy as possible.

With the numerous teaching articles, helpful tools, downloads and resources available on our website, coupled with our 4 WhatsApp Groups, we hope that there is help and/or guidance available for everyone, no matter what level of yoshon-keeping they are on. We get numerous questions all day long from people, and merely reading the material on our site would answer many general questions. We hope and urge everyone to take advantage of all that our site has to offer.

As the yoshon updates and news finally start to settle down a bit, there is still much more planned for the nearing end of the chodosh season. We will announce any new additions that occur as they become available.

January 7, 2022 – Project Chodosh Fundraiser

We should lend our support to help Project Chodosh! Even though they are a separate organization, TYNI would not exist without them. This was posted from their email list:

“Reb Yosef Herman's Yohrzeit

Dear Fellow Chodosh Subscribers,

Today, ה' שבט, is the third Yohrzeit of our father, Reb Yosef Herman z"l, the founder of Project Chodosh. We have initiated a fundraising campaign, l'zecher nishmaso, to cover our budget for the coming year. As mentioned previously, we are hiring help to work with Mrs. Rosskamm in order to service the public more expediently and efficiently. Please donate using the link below. Your contribution is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Moshe Herman

[TYNI Note: This fundraiser is still going on. Project Chodosh has only raised about 1/3rd of what they really need to hire desperately needed help.]

RECENT YOSHON UPDATES

January 30, 2022 – Yoshon Cereals List Updated

Now that all the cutoff dates for cereals in Canada and South Africa are in, it is time to update our Yoshon Cereals List. There are several that were removed from the last list that had a status of “Yoshon (this may change)” and change they did. Since they were no longer listed as yoshon, they were removed completely.

This should be the final update unless the Final Guide to Chodosh has something new to report.

YOSHON PRODUCT OR ESTABLISHMENT ALERTS

January 27, 2022 – UOS of South Africa Update #7

There are no products in this update. It is strictly South African establishments, such as bakeries and restaurants, and whether they are, or are not yoshon.

RECALLS AND ISSUES AFFECTING YOSHON OR POTENTIALLY YOSHON PRODUCTS

Nothing to report this month.

OFFERS, PROMOS, AND DISCOUNT COUPONS

There were hardly any coupons available this month for food products, but we did manage to find a couple.

Coupon for Kikkoman: This is a nice coupon for any Kikkoman product, not just soy sauce. It should be possible to find soy sauces that are still yoshon, since the packing date cutoff was just December 30, 2021:

<https://landing.redplum.com/p/kikkoman>

Coupon for Planet Oat: We have the dates for the Shelf-Stable varieties of Planet Oat Oatmilk on our website. There may still be a few yoshon ones out there if you look hard enough! If you find them, they must be before the Best By Date of JUL 23 2022:
