Appeal for Donations from Project Chodosh

January 24, 2023 – This Just Sent to Project Chodosh’s Email List

“Dear Fellow Shomer Yoshon,

As we approach the 4th yearzeit of our father Reb Yoseph ben Yehoshua z”l, the void left by his sudden petira hasn’t diminished, neither on a personal nor a communal level. We were, unfortunately, wholly unprepared to take over his life’s work on Project Chodosh. We realize that the public suffered together with us. We went through many growing pains behind the scenes but with Hashem’s help, things seem to be finally falling into place. With the prodding and encouragement of many anxious consumers, and subsequent consultation with our daas Torah, the Herman family has committed to continuing Project Chodosh. To that end we have hired a full time-staff, headed by our niece, Mrs. C Rosskamm, who was directly trained by our father a”h. Mrs. Rosskamm’s all-encompassing knowledge of all aspects of Project Chodosh is breathtaking. The Project would not have survived until now without her, and her leadership and guidance are indispensable to all Shomrei Yoshon. Since the inception of Project Chodosh Rav Avrohom Greenfeld Shlit”a has been working closely with our father a”h and has graciously agreed to continue.

To date, The Project was able to cover expenses through donations and by the sale of the Guides, with our father covering the occasional shortfall. With the wisdom of hindsight, we realize that he single handedly did the work of an entire team, always without remuneration. Now that he is gone, this model is unsustainable. You are witness to the struggles we have endured to bring the information you rely on to the public. With our new structure, we are looking at an annual budget of approximately $200,000. We are appealing to those who have made use of the Guide throughout the years to help cover our new budget.

Our father’s yearzeit is on 5 Shvat. Any learning or mitzva that can be dedicated l’iluy nishmas Reb Yoseph ben Yehoshua, would be appreciated. Additionally, we will be initiating a crowdfunding campaign at <https://www.rayze.it/projectchodosh/> on our father’s yearzeit with the hope to significantly cover the budget. Please understand that The Project now depends on donations to keep it running. Without significant contributions there is no way we will be able to continue this vital work. Dedication opportunities can be arranged by contacting herman.chodosh@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Moshe Herman on behalf of the Herman Family”
